Christian Values: Courage, Compassion, Trust, Friendship, Wisdom, Endurance

Dear Parents and Carers,

Hello and welcome to Chaddleshworth and Shefford's newsletter, brought to you by your lovely Year 6s. In this week's news, Robins have enjoyed drawing club and toast club. They are learning about quarters and creating their stories. One of the Robins told us excitedly, "I'm writing about Harry Potter". They obviously enjoy it! In Kingfishers, they have also been writing and have almost finished their version of "The Diary of a Killer Cat". Ava-Rayne loved reading about Tuffy the cat dragging a rabbit into the house because the way it was told was very funny. In Owls, they are rehearsing for their performance of "Fantastic Mr Fox" which they are really enjoying. Darcy's highlight of the week was swimming and Simon's was science as they were learning about electrical circuits. For news about Red Kites, see the article about The Watermill.

Best wishes,
Year 6

Come and enjoy our fun games at the School Summer Fete. Bring your family. We will have 'Throw a Frog' and the key game on our stall. See if you can win some sweets! Also please contact the PTFA or school office if you are able to help. Thank you to everyone who has so far!

Science Week

Science Week is all about 'Connections' this year. We're looking forward to lots of different activities in science. You are welcome to join our Collective Worship on Thursday at 2.30pm to find out all about it.

The Big Question

Is 'Endurance' an important life skill to have?
Why?

The Watermill Theatre

'The Toy Shop'

The Watermill very kindly invited Year 5 and 6 to take part in the small schools production of 2023. 'The Toy Shop' was written by Talitha Wing but also us! We created our character's personalities, adapted the script and improvised our lines to make it ours as well.

Special thanks to Lixi for building up our confidence in order for us to be able to perform in front of a large audience. Big thanks to all the staff who have helped us too.

"It was great. You did very well and your acting skills were on point." Mrs M.

"I was really proud of you and I didn't know you had that in you. I was really amazed." Mr E.

"Molto bene!" Mr M.

"Foarte bun!" Mr S.

"I could hear you so clearly." Mrs R.

Thank you parents for supporting us in learning our lines and encouraging us.

Up and coming important dates for your diary!
